CITY LIBRARIES GETTING NEW WEB ADDRESSES JULY 1

Most public libraries websites in Umatilla County will be moving by July 1.

For several years the Oregon State Library has provided public libraries with a website; however they are discontinuing the service on June 30. After researching possible alternatives, the Library Directors of the affected libraries in Umatilla County chose to go with Weebly. Weebly allows each library to customize a website for its community needs.

This is a list of the new website addresses:

Adams: <http://www.cityofadamsoregon.com/>

Helix: <http://helixlibrary.weebly.com/>

Milton-Freewater: <http://mflibrary.weebly.com/>

Pendleton: <http://pendletonlibrary.weebly.com/>

Pilot Rock: <http://pilotrockpubliclibrary.weebly.com/>

Stanfield: <http://www.stanfieldpubliclibrary.com/>

Ukiah: <http://ukiahlibrary.weebly.com/>

Umatilla: <http://umatillapubliclibrary.weebly.com/>

Patrons are able to use the new websites for local library information plus access the card catalog, place books on hold and order books from libraries throughout eastern Oregon. The websites also allow patrons to access the on-line resources provided by the Umatilla County Special Library District – Library2Go, Heritage Quest, EBSCO Auto Repair Reference Center, and Mango Languages – and other on-line resources provided through the Oregon State Library.

The Athena (<http://athenalibrary.weebly.com>), Echo (<http://www.echo-oregon.com/library.html>), Hermiston (<http://www.hermistonlibrary.us>), and Weston (<http://www.westonpubliclibrary.com>) libraries website addresses remain unchanged.

For more information, contact your local library.
